The assembly held yesterday morning during the third hour brought sack memories of older times.

The main idea of the assembly was to boost the Senior class plac-"Mary Jane's Pa," and it certainly was given a royal reception. The first thing that took place was a rip snorting selection played by the High School orchestra. Then came 529 Totamy Marier out on the platform 500 and delivered a little speech in re-.400 gard to the rest of the program in besiting the Senior play. So we are trying to take care of our customers in this way-we have some very fine "bodies" or "shapes" as the milliners say, in very fine Panama. Inspection will show you, we believe that these are the grade usually found in $7.50 hats (trimmed). Until we get in some more trimmed Panamas to sell at $5, we are seiling these "shapes" at $3.50, and you can get them blocked and trimmed to suit at $1.50, giving you an extraordinary value for $5.

-We still have a good line of finished Panamas at $7.50, $10. $12.50 and $15. Also some excellent "shapes" at $7.50 and $10.06.
